SENT DEPARTMENT 488, REPEATED INFORMATION TAIPEI 8, HONG KONG 12.

Sukarno at installation Sukarni new Ambassador to Peiping stated August 22 "insignificant difficulties" with CHICOMS" have not in least changed our desire and will to maintain closest relations with CPR" noted that with good will both sides, difficulties can be settled.

Comment: Sukarno's remarks show that he, like CHICOMS, but for different reasons, willing minimize past difficulties and attempt rebuild at least facade of former good will. He motivated by desire preserve Afro-Asian solidarity and avoid any other major foreign policy issue which detracts from Indonesian West Irian position. Further, in delicate balance between PKI and Army, he needs to prevent flareups with Chinese which tend give Army additional weapon against PKI because of domestic antipathy local Chinese.

Dear Mr. Delson:

I wish to thank you on behalf of Governor Harriman for your analysis of the legal basis for Indonesia's position with respect to West New Guinea which you were kind enough to send him under cover of letter dated January 15, 1962.

Your memorandum has been circulated to all of the appropriate officers in the Department and has been read with interest. Your views on this subject are appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Edward E. Rice
